

#1 First Rule on the Art Trail 2021

Please wear your mask when required or requested.

THANK YOU!!

Cazenovia Watercolor Society

Common Grounds at Dave's Diner, 35 Albany St, Cazenovia, NY

Cazenovia Watercolor Society is a non-profit organization. Its mission is to create, foster & sustain artistic growth & interest in water media through monthly meetings & an annual artist workshop.

3 Cazenovia Artisans

39 Albany St, Cazenovia, NY

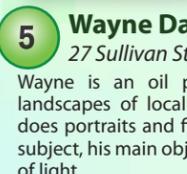

Cazenovia Artisans is a true Artisan Cooperative. With 21 members, we own and operate our own gallery of regional fine art and craft. Open every day!

4 Megan Muldoon - painter

57 Albany St (Lillie Bean), Cazenovia, NY

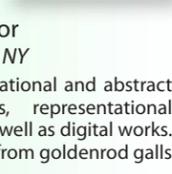

Megan works in oil, acrylic and clay. Diagnosed with autism at a young age, Megan's artistic expression explores the object and beyond through the use of color. The wide array of tones helps communicate her unique view of the world around her.

5 Wayne Daniels - painter

27 Sullivan St, Cazenovia, NY

Wayne is an oil painter mainly focusing on landscapes of local scenes. He also sometimes does portraits and figurative work. Whatever the subject, his main objective is capturing the effects of light.

6 Dave Porter - sculptor

46 Sullivan St, Cazenovia, NY

Dave makes non-representational and abstract carved wood sculptures, representational paintings (oil on canvas) as well as digital works. He also creates assemblies from goldenrod galls and stems.

7 Alyson Markell - mixed media

4634 Ridge Rd, Cazenovia, NY

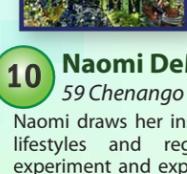

Alyson Markell creates both collage and painting into one process with a mosaic of hand painted papers. The images in her work reflect her surroundings as well as her love for the natural environment.

8 Rick Marchant - painter

2 Gillette Lane, Cazenovia, NY

The art process to Rick is not a spontaneous event, but rather a deliberate progression of experimenting and rendering. He feels it is important to be familiar with the subject and then apply the necessary effort.

9 Audrey Hamilton - photographer

5 Gillette Ln, Cazenovia, NY

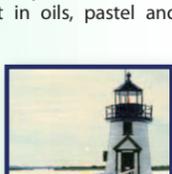

Audrey is mainly a photographer of our natural and, sometimes, mysterious environment - specializing in: oddly shaped trees and roots, reflections and abandoned spaces. She enjoys capturing beauty from the unknown.

10 Roger DeMuth - illustrator

59 Chenango St, Cazenovia, NY

Roger's motto, "Have Watercolors, Will Travel," sums up only a small fraction of his work. Illustrations, designs, books, photography and garden design make up the rest of the portfolio for this multi-talented artist.

10 Naomi DeMuth - potter

59 Chenango St, Cazenovia, NY

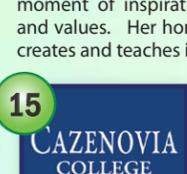

Naomi draws her inspiration from past cultures, lifestyles and regions. She continues to experiment and explore various techniques and materials, working in raku, pit firing, hand building and wheel throwing.

11 Cazenovia Area Painters

Carpenter's Barn, Lakeland Park, Cazenovia

Local artists meet weekly to paint on site or "en plein air." Carpenter's Barn will display their paintings of Cazenovia scenery and landmarks. Come watch artists paint in oils, pastel and watercolor.

12 Paul Parpard - multimedia

4722 Syracuse Rd, Cazenovia, NY

See Paul's original paintings, bronze and clay sculpture, hand-carved signs with 23 kt gold leaf work, lithographs, etchings, silk screen and digital works. He also offers logo design, trade mark & branding.

13 Marilyn Fegan - 3-D painter

1570 Route 20 West, Cazenovia, NY

Come visit Marilyn's wonderful studio in the woods and see how she turns interesting furniture and bowls into her canvases and then into beautiful pieces of functional art.

14 Judith H. Levins - painter

3808 Lane Rd, Cazenovia, NY

Judy works in watercolor in an expressive free style. Through her work, she attempts to capture a moment of inspiration with light, color, texture and values. Her home based studio is where she creates and teaches in person as well as online.

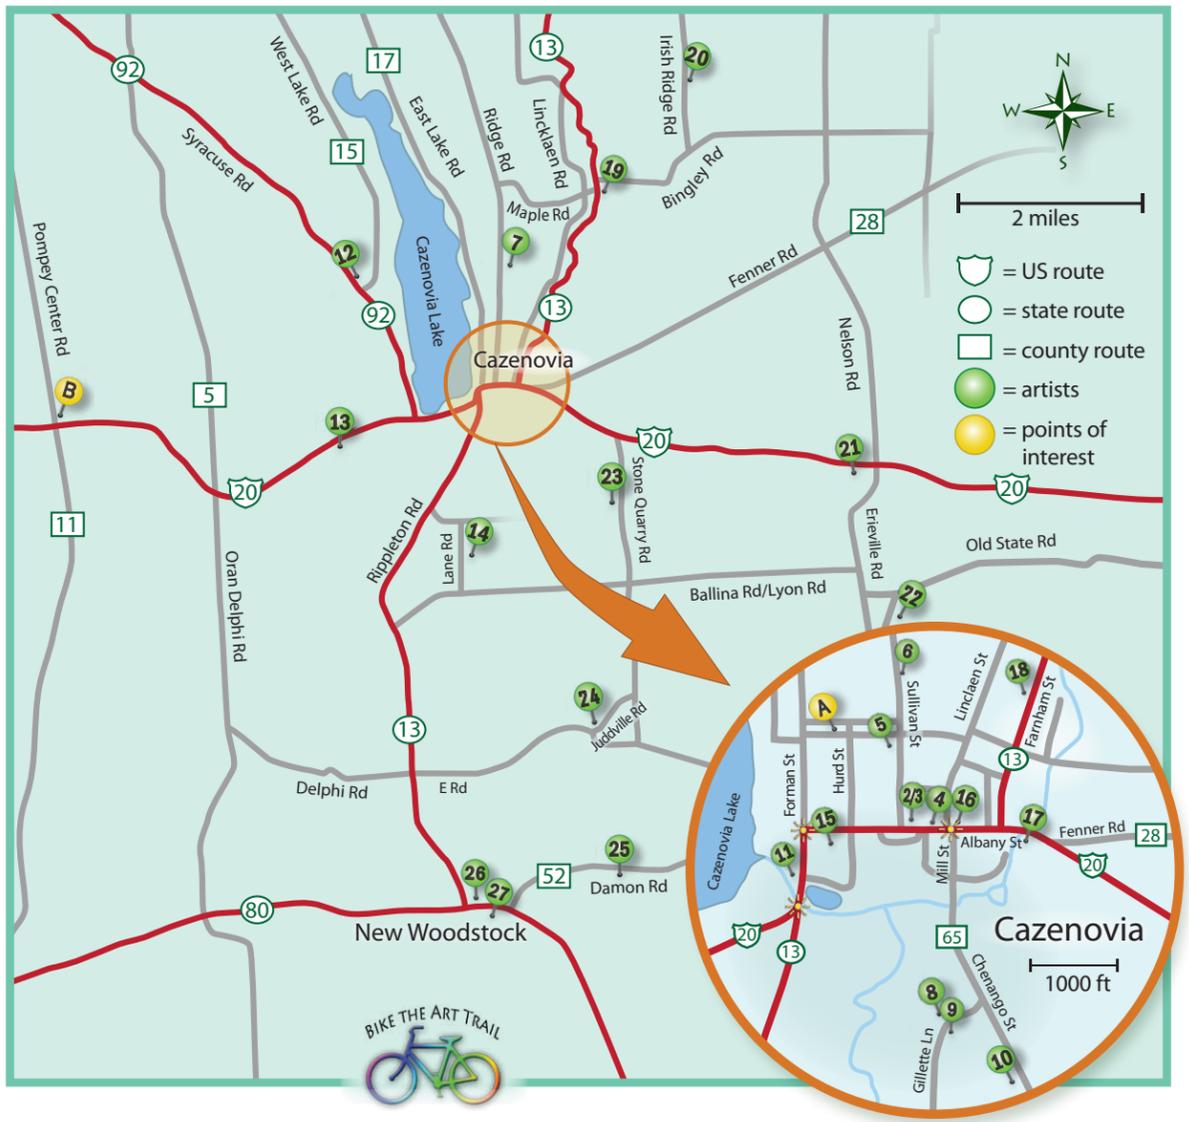

15 Cazenovia College Student Art

10 Albany St, Jephson Campus A, Cazenovia College, Cazenovia, NY

Deacon Student Art Gallery, 2nd floor - Showing works from recent graduates of Studio Art & Arts Management Programs: Kathryn Szykowski, Emily Moziak, Gwen Andersen & Claire Woods.

16 Cazenovia Cut Block - woodworkers

85 Albany St, Cazenovia, NY

Cazenovia Cut Block started out as a hobby, then a passion, and now a thriving business. Their specialties include beautiful hand-turned bowls, cutting boards, live-edge paddleboards and many items crafted from New York hardwoods.

16 Susan Johnson - painter

85 Albany St, Cazenovia, NY

Landscapes that appeal the most to Susan are those that convey our beautiful area of Central New York. She hopes you recognize a few of her favorite painting spots.

17 Jennifer Hooley - painter

132 Albany St (1st floor), Cazenovia, NY

Think like a little kid, focus on the imagination, take a big brush, some bravery, add lots of color, and before you know it... ribbit, ribbit, yippee... you're froghappy! Tennis is cool too.

17 Cheryl Dunn - painter

132 Albany St (1st floor), Cazenovia, NY

Cheryl is inspired by the countryside and all sorts of animals. She has spent time watching the habits and movements of many animals. Regardless of the species, she enjoys the challenge of capturing an animal's true nature.

18 Deborah Wester - painter

59 Farnham St, Cazenovia, NY

Deborah paints local Central New York landscapes. She likes to start a piece outside, sometimes with loose watercolor sketches to get the values, then back in her studio to complete the oil painting.

19 Shawn McGuire - potter

4872 Gorge Rd (Rt 13), Cazenovia, NY

Shawn makes wood-fired pottery that is heavily influenced by Asian tradition, especially tea culture. His dramatic Shino glazes are reminiscent of geological formations.

20 Peter Beasecker - potter

5214 Irish Ridge Rd, Chittenango, NY

Peter is a ceramics professor at Syracuse Univ and a studio potter. Peter's work made from high-fired porcelain and stoneware, is predominantly wheel-thrown. He makes elegant, detailed & functional pottery meant for the table and the hand.

20 Liz Lurie - potter

5214 Irish Ridge Rd, Chittenango, NY

Liz is a studio potter and teacher who makes functional wood-fired pottery. Her pots are predominantly earth tones, subtle, quiet and meant to celebrate the food and flowers that go in them.

21 Sally Hootnick - painter

3208 Route 20, Nelson, NY

Sally is a painter who works in oils, encaustics, and acrylics. Employing bold color and brushstrokes, her work alternates between abstraction and impressionism, and is informed by nature, geometry, and the effects of light on color.

21 Shawn Gilmore - painter

3208 Route 20, Nelson, NY

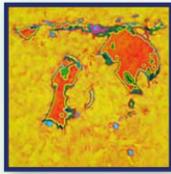

Shawn's bold paintings are done in a multi-step process allowing the individual layers to build. Because of the process, each piece has a unique quality.

21 Henry J. Drexler - painter

3208 Route 20, Nelson, NY

In Henry's "Bovine Madness" series, digital images of clustered cows, transformed into fancifully colored abstract shapes and patterns, provide the inspiration for whimsical paintings of bovine ambiguity.

22 Carl Stearns - painter

3568 Stearns Rd, Erieville, NY

Carl likes to paint landscapes, waterfalls and old architecture. His subject locations are central New York, the Adirondacks and Crater Lake in Oregon, where the violent eruption of a prehistoric volcano created a place of peaceful beauty to this day.

23 François Eméra - painter

3883 Stone Quarry Rd, Cazenovia, NY

François believes that we find the opportunities to access the soul and project it onto a canvas or the floor. We breathe in the art we create and exhale our interpretation. The semantics he seeks to master is the communication of color.

23 Geoffrey Navias - multimedia

3883 Stone Quarry Rd, Cazenovia, NY

Geoffrey is the Resident Artist at Stone Quarry Hill Art Park. He enjoys working with local wood and exploring sculpture and art that moves.

23 Sarah Tietje-Mietz - painter

3883 Stone Quarry Rd, Cazenovia, NY

Sarah's theatrical night scenes honor light's magical qualities in the darkness and capture memories from places she has been. Each painting serves as an act of re-experiencing those spaces for her.

24 Neal Parker - wood worker

2399 Juddville Rd, Cazenovia, NY

Woodworking is a language that Neal understands, and is a way he can express himself. He loves that each new project has endless possibilities and challenges, which keeps him learning and growing as an artist.

25 Mary Padgett - painter

2514 Damon Rd, New Woodstock, NY

Mary works with soft pastel, a colorful and dynamic material that is a versatile drawing and painting medium. Come into her studio on Damon Road to see her work space, her vibrant still life and plein air landscape paintings, and her new mosaics.

26 Michael McBane - painter

at New Woodstock Train Depot, Railroad St, New Woodstock, NY

Michael's vibrant, acrylic paintings span coloristic abstract works to more representational pieces such as portraits, landscapes of central NY, trout and a variety of farm animals.

26 Leigh Yardley - painter

at New Woodstock Train Depot, Railroad St, New Woodstock, NY

Leigh creates paintings and installations based on her observations and immersion in the landscape. The interactions with the spaces are motivated by a desire for a relationship with the place and moment.

27 Jerry Weimar - photographer

at New Woodstock Free Library, 2106 Main St, New Woodstock, NY

Jerry's photographic interests were originally inspired by the beauty of the mountains. His work focuses on Central NY, especially Madison County, the Adirondacks and arctic regions.
