2 Cazenovia Artisans

39 Albany St, Cazenovia, NY

This year we are celebrating 20 years of bringing fine art and craft to central New York. Our gallery features the works of 20 local artists as well as supporting other regional artists through our Visiting Artist program.

3 Megan Muldoon - painter

57 Albany St (Lillie Bean), Cazenovia, NY

Megan works in oil, acrylic and clay. Diagnosed with autism at a young age, Megan's artistic expression explores the object and beyond through the use of color. The wide array of tones helps communicate her unique view of the world around her.

4 Daniel Fox - painter

58 Albany St (JS Hight & Sons), Cazenovia, NY

Daniel paints his subjects, i.e., landscapes, still lifes and florals, directly from life, whether indoors or on site. He is a contemporary realist oil painter.

5 Wayne Daniels - painter

27 Sullivan St, Cazenovia, NY

Wayne is an oil painter mainly focusing on landscapes of local scenes. He also sometimes does portraits and figurative work. Whatever the subject, his main objective is capturing the effects of light.

6 Dave Porter - sculptor & painter

46 Sullivan St, Cazenovia, NY

Dave makes paintings, drawings and non-representational sculptures. His paintings are oil on canvas; his drawings are charcoal and his sculptures are carved wood or goldenrod assemblies.

7 Rick Marchant - painter

2 Gillette Lane, Cazenovia, NY

The art process to Rick is not a spontaneous event, but rather a deliberate progression of experimenting and rendering. He feels it is important to be familiar with the subject and then apply the necessary effort.

8 Audrey Hamilton - photographer

5 Gillette Ln, Cazenovia, NY

Audrey is mainly a photographer of our natural and, sometimes, mysterious environment - specializing in: oddly shaped trees and roots, reflections and abandoned spaces. She enjoys capturing beauty from the unknown.

9 Naomi DeMuth - potter

59 Chenango St, Cazenovia, NY

Naomi draws her inspiration from past cultures, lifestyles and regions. She continues to experiment and explore various techniques and materials, working in raku, pit firing, hand building and wheel throwing.

9 Roger DeMuth - illustrator

59 Chenango St, Cazenovia, NY

Roger's motto, "Have Watercolors, Will Travel," sums up only a small fraction of his work. Illustrations, designs, books, photography and garden design make up the rest of the portfolio for this multi-talented artist.

10 Cazenovia Area Painters

Carpenter's Barn, Lakeland Park, Cazenovia, NY

Local artists meet weekly to paint on site or "en plein air." Carpenter's Barn will display their paintings of Cazenovia scenery and landmarks. Come watch artists paint in oils, pastel and watercolor.

10 Carpenter's Barn Studios

Carpenter's Barn, Lakeland Park, Cazenovia, NY

Carpenter's Barn stables have been redesigned into a large shared space with several working studios. Artists Pilar Figueira, Tara McClung, Jen Pepper and Kathryn Szykjowski are currently creating and exhibiting their work in this space.

11 Paul René Parpard - multimedia

4722 Syracuse Rd, Cazenovia, NY

See Paul's original paintings, bronze and clay sculpture, hand-carved signs with 23 kt gold leaf work, lithographs, etchings, silk screen and digital works. He also offers logo design, trademark & branding.

12 Marilyn Fegan - 3-D painter

1570 Route 20 West, Cazenovia, NY

Come visit Marilyn's wonderful studio in the woods and see how she turns interesting furniture and bowls into her canvases and then into beautiful pieces of functional art.

13 Judith H. Levins - painter

3808 Lane Rd, Cazenovia, NY

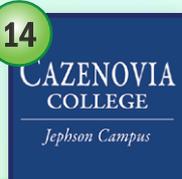

Judy works in watercolor in an expressive free style. Through her work, she attempts to capture a moment of inspiration with light, color, texture and values. Her home-based studio is where she creates and teaches in person as well as online.

14 Cazenovia College Student Art

10 Albany St, Jephson Campus A, Cazenovia College, Cazenovia, NY

There will be a group exhibition and sale of unique handmade items by Cazenovia students and alumni, along with demonstrations. More details on the reverse side under "Additional Special Events".

15 Cazenovia Cut Block - woodworkers

85 Albany St, Cazenovia, NY

Cazenovia Cut Block started out as a hobby, then a passion, and now a thriving business. Their specialties include beautiful hand-turned bowls, cutting boards, live-edge paddleboards and many items crafted from New York hardwoods.

15 Susan Johnson - painter

85 Albany St, Cazenovia, NY

Landscapes that appeal the most to Susan are those that convey our beautiful area of central New York. She hopes you recognize a few of her favorite painting spots.

16 Jennifer Hooley - painter

132 Albany St (1st floor), Cazenovia, NY

Think like a little kid, focus on the imagination, take a big brush, some bravery, add lots of color, and before you know it... rabbit, rabbit, yippee... you're froghappy! Tennis is cool too.

Come bike the Cazenovia Art Trail this year. Artists will hold any artwork purchased by the bikers. Maps of the bike trails for all skill levels are available at:

17 Gene Gissin - photographer*25 William St, Cazenovia, NY*

Gene specializes in photojournalistic as well as traditional event photography and portraiture. His work reflects his belief that being spontaneous and less obtrusive than that of traditional photographers creates the best life-reflecting images.

24 Carl Stearns - painter*3568 Stearns Rd, Erieville, NY*

Carl likes to paint landscapes, waterfalls and old architecture. His subject locations are central New York, the Adirondacks and Crater Lake in Oregon, where the violent eruption of a prehistoric volcano created a place of peaceful beauty to this day.

18*Tami Louco - painter*18 Lincklaen Dr (off Lincklaen Terr), Cazenovia, NY*

Tami Louco is an oil painter who loves plein air (outdoor) painting because of its looseness and the pressure of a time limit. Many of her plein air paintings serve as a jumping off point for studio works.

25*Tim See - potter*at Stone Quarry Art Park, 3883 Stone Quarry Rd, Caz*

Tim See as well as other members of the Independent Potters Association and invited potters, will have wheel-thrown and handbuilt functional and decorative ceramic works for sale. The potters will be onsite doing demos and talking about their work.

19*Deborah Dougherty Wester - painter*59 Farnham St, Cazenovia, NY*

Deborah paints local central New York landscapes. She likes to start a piece outside, sometimes with loose watercolor sketches to get the values, then back in her studio to complete the oil painting.

25*François Eméra - painter*at Stone Quarry Art Park, 3883 Stone Quarry Rd, Caz*

François believes that we find the opportunities to access the soul and project it onto a canvas or the floor. We breathe in the art we create and exhale our interpretation. The semantics he seeks to master is the communication of color.

20*Shawn McGuire - potter*4872 Gorge Rd (Rt 13), Cazenovia, NY*

Shawn makes wood-fired pottery that is heavily influenced by Asian tradition, especially tea culture. His dramatic Shino glazes are reminiscent of geological formations.

25*Jenna Paulsen - painter*at Stone Quarry Art Park, 3883 Stone Quarry Rd, Caz*

Jenna uses a variety of colors and textures to highlight the beauty in the temporary – the season, weather and lighting conditions that make each landscape unique. She brings out the seen and unseen aspects of each landscape painting, exploring the "in-between spaces."

21*Peter Beasecker - potter*5214 Irish Ridge Rd, Chittenango, NY*

Peter is a ceramics professor at Syracuse Univ and a studio potter. Peter's work made from high-fired porcelain and stoneware, is predominantly wheel-thrown. He makes elegant, detailed & functional pottery meant for the table and the hand.

26*Neal Parker - wood worker*2399 Juddville Rd, Cazenovia, NY*

Woodworking is a language that Neal understands, and is a way he can express himself. He loves that each new project has endless possibilities and challenges, which keeps him learning and growing as an artist.

21*Liz Lurie - potter*5214 Irish Ridge Rd, Chittenango, NY*

Liz is a studio potter and teacher who makes functional wood-fired pottery. Her pots are predominantly earth tones, subtle, quiet and meant to celebrate the food and flowers that go in them.

27*Mary Padgett - painter*2514 Damon Rd, New Woodstock, NY*

Mary paints still life & plein air landscape paintings in pastel; see her latest works painted both here & in Italy where she offers workshops. She also creates expressive mosaics with bits of up-cycled glass, ceramic & jewelry parts.

22*Shawn Gilmore - painter*3208 Route 20 (Route 20 Sofa), Nelson, NY*

Shawn's bold paintings are done in a multi-step process allowing the individual layers to build. Because of the process, each piece has a unique quality.

28*Leigh Yardley - painter*at New Woodstock Train Depot, Railroad St, New Woodstock, NY*

Leigh creates paintings and installations based on her observations and immersion in the landscape. The interactions with the spaces are motivated by a desire for a relationship with the place and moment.

22*Jerry Weimar - photographer*3208 Route 20 (Route 20 Sofa), Nelson, NY*

Jerry's exhibit this year focuses on images from the High Arctic in Svalbard, as well as Lake Ontario Winter. Both traditional prints and metal prints are being displayed.

22*Henry J. Drexler - painter*3208 Route 20 (Route 20 Sofa), Nelson, NY*

In Henry's "Bovine Madness" series, digital images of cows, transformed into fancifully colored abstract shapes and patterns, provide the inspiration for whimsical paintings of bovine ambiguity.

A*Cazenovia Farmers' MarketVillage Green, between Emory St & Green St, Cazenovia, NY*

Pick up fresh produce and handmade goods every Saturday, May through October from 9 AM to 2 PM. <https://www.cazenoviamarket.com/>

Geoffrey collects local trees which have come down in our odd climate storms. Harvesting and working the wood he imagines sculptural vessels and kinetic moving art. His creations are full with serious whimsy.

B*Pompey Historical Society8347 US Route 20, Manlius 13104*

On exhibit is the artwork of Don and Nancy Edwards representing their civic, preservation, and many artistic contributions to the Town of Pompey. The exhibit includes their writings, Don's handcrafted wooden toys, and Nancy's paintings. www.pompeyhistorical.org
