

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cazenovia Art Trail to be held September 28 and 29

An opportunity to visit artists' studios, art hubs, and participate in workshops.

Cazenovia, New York – September 12, 2019— Mark your calendar for September 28 and 29 to visit the 2019 Cazenovia Art Trail, a unique opportunity to meet painters, sculptors, potters, photographers and crafts people in their studios where they bring their works to life. Visitors will experience a diverse collection of artists and their works as well as nature's display of fall colors in and around Cazenovia. Studios and "Art Hubs" will be open for the tour from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. both days of the Trail and Cazenovia College will host two workshops on Saturday.

The Art Trail is pleased to present the following artists: Sally Hootnick, painter; Shawn Mcguire, potter; Megan Muldoon, painter; Sarah Tietje-Mietz, painter; Tom McCobb, painter; Jennifer Hooley, painter; Susan Johnson, painter; Michael McBane, painter; Mary Padgett, pastel painter; Peter Beasecker, potter; Wayne Daniels, painter; Naomi DeMuth, potter; Roger DeMuth, illustrator; Eugen Doering, metal sculptor; Henry Drexler, painter; Marilyn Fegan, 3-D painter; Liz Lurie, potter; Paul Parpard, multimedia; Cazenovia Cut Block, woodworkers; Dave Porter, wood sculptor; Deborah Wester, painter; Shawn Gilmore, painter; multiple Cazenovia Watercolor Society painters; multiple artists at Cazenovia Artisans; Geoffrey Navias, artist in residence at Stone Quarry Hill Art Park; Cazenovia College art exhibit; and Cazenovia College Art students at Jephson Campus. New this year, the Gordon Muck Collection, owned and curated by the New Woodstock Public Library, will be on display at The Depot in New Woodstock. Also, many pieces of Eugen Doering's sculpture, which were previously only for display, will be for sale for the first time.

Sponsored by the Cazenovia Area Community Development Association, (CACDA), this 8th annual Art Trail includes the area's finest artists, several of whom have won awards, working in their home studios or other "art hub" settings during the event. The 2019 Art Trail includes a few studios within walking distance in the historic village, while other studios may be reached by car. Again this year, bicycle routes for all ability levels are available on the website for anyone wishing to explore the Trail by bike. Artists are prepared to hold any artwork purchased by bikers so they can pick it up at a later date. The event is free and open to the public. Discover the art and artists that make this one of the most colorful spots in Central New York!

Cazenovia College welcomes Art Trail visitors to campus with a variety of interesting Trail stops that include two free workshops on campus. The Cyanotype Postcard Workshop will be held Saturday from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. in Reisman Hall, Room 006, and Open Community Figure Drawing will be held on Saturday from 12 p.m. to 4 p.m. in Jephson Campus A, Studio 206. The public is also invited to visit smART (Student Made Art) located in the Jephson Campus A first floor studios on Saturday and Sunday from 12 p.m. to 4 p.m., and the CazMade artisan shop located in the Caz College bookstore. Stop 1 on the Art Trail is the Art Gallery at Reisman Hall where the work of three New York artists is on display for the exhibition Big Color, Earth & Sky.

Special points of interest along the 2019 Art Trail include the Cazenovia Farmer's Market, Lorenzo State Historic Site, and Pompey Historical Society. Visitors are also encouraged to visit the many other shops and restaurants in the Cazenovia area.

Maps of the Art Trail will be available at all artists' locations on the days of the event, including the Gallery at Reisman Hall at 6 Sullivan Street where visitors can also stop to get more information, or they can be downloaded from the Art Trail website, art-trail.org.

For more information about the event and this year's participating artists, visit art-trail.org, email arttrail@cacda.net, or "like" the Art Trail on Facebook.

Contact:

Cathy Savage

arttrail@cacda.net or csavage1@frontiernet.net

Phone: 315.256.3221